The modern fantasy genre first took root during the 18th century with the increased popularity of Fables travelers' tales, influencing and being influenced by other early forms of speculative fiction along the way, finally unfurling in the 19th century from a literary tapestry of fantastic stories and and Fiction recognition as a distinct genre mainly due to the nigh-ubiquitous recession of fantastic elements from "mainstream" fiction in the late 19th century. Conveniently, one chocobo is left behind, and he's the one who is charged with freeing the others from their new forms as chocobo cards, which are scattered throughout the land.
