By physically hitting my mother and me, he effectively stopped us from reacting. Men who accept being lied to and manipulated are not only abdicating their power, they are setting up a situation where they can "blame" women or justify woman-hating. I learned a lot from bell hooks about choosing love, about re-vitalizing our dedication to honesty, accountability, and All About Love. I was feeling an intangible discomfort as I read, and I hadn't thought to examine it. I would not recommend this book to anyone reading bell hooks for the first time - this is All About Love not the place to start, unless all of what I wrote about above regarding Christianity is something you're interested in. I thought those days were long gone.
