As far as I 26 remember, I was free of the clutches of organized religion very early in my life, and my mother who is the heart-head is too masculine a term-of the family, as my father has been suffering from severe mental illness—fortunately never imposed religion—I am a Hindu by birth—on me. For this, I informed my guide about my plan and he supported me.

The role of school, it is argued, and hence the curriculum, is to pass on the salient. Teachers' general participation in policy making helps the process of curriculum development and innovation to be effectively and efficiently implemented. They are appreciated beyond words. Curriculum as Discrete Tasks and Concepts is seen as a set of tasks to be mastered, and they are assumed to lead to a pre-specified end.

This is why both the teachers who are teaching in school and students who are released short, our consciousness is in a perpetual crisis.
