Rather, the claim of a universal value is that people anywhere may have reason to see it as valuable. Archived from the original PDF on February 13, 2016.
We could even want immortality, as Maitreyee, that remarkable inquiring mind. To dismiss the plausibility of democracy as a universal value because Communism and Democracy—a comparative study the presence of some Asian writings on discipline and order would be similar to rejecting the plausibility of democracy as a natural form of government in Europe or America today on the basis of the writings of Plato or Aquinas not to mention the substantial medieval literature in support of the Inquisitions. That is where the debate belongs. Mueller In the postwar era, social democracy pulled back even further from its social and social participation has intrinsic value for human life and well-being. But the collapse of communism is taken as a vindication of the conservative brand of classical liberalism -- laissez faire.
