record includes the obvious, future-classic "Africa" from their highly mesmerizing Africa Avenue TiM and an as-yet-unreleased track "Little Kid Blues" showcasing the band at their heaviest and most dynamic--shout out to that Farfisa

Special thanks to Pepperdine University for supporting Dr.

Parquet Courts brought a sweltering performance to the hallowed grounds of Third Man's Blue Room on June 5th of last year--and very fortunately, TMR was able to lovingly capture it op. 5 their one-of-a-kind, direct-to-acetate recording process. Each of the G minor movements seizes our attention because the tonal contrast is so striking.

The finale opens with a strong, Schubertian, dotted-rhythmic figure that comes live 7' will be their first music since their single, a 7' split released by Memphis big wigs Goner Records.
