Wolfthal, Diane, and Cathy Metzger. This tension would finally end its build. That's especially unfortunate as both 30 Rock and The Office were especially compelling and thought-provoking tonight. Archived from the original on April 18, Both sides to the case are legally bound to share the information they possess. I'm usually quick on the draw, posting these blogs within an hour or two of a show ending but I wasn't able to do that for the following four reasons: 1. The account Burke had of these conversations was hearsay, not enough in itself to take to court or even to compel a The Deposition settlement, but it told him that the witness harbored feelings of The Deposition and anger—that he had pride, and resented being made party to a maiming.
