The Night's Watch has no heraldic symbol to emphasize its sworn duty to be removed from petty politics of one lordly House or another, but to defend the lands of men as a. The original headquarters of the Night's Watch was the Nightfort the first castle built at the Wall, and thus for thousands of years, it was where the Lord Commander of the Watch resided.

There was a certain part I had to read a few times before I actually understood. Not that much romance. Image zoom. And nothing beats one where the ages are 17 and 5.

Martin remains as resolute as ever: His ending is coming. While questionable, I understood some of the actions he did; those were merely done because he believed it was for the best interests of his younger brother, and I guess that tidbit gave him more depth. After eight years in a world where innocent kids are used to feed the darkest of depravities, Vaughn has seen things that would break even the strongest man.
